

I.P.M.S. Roscoe Turner Chapter December 2020 Newsletter

IPMS December 18, 2020 meeting

Introduction: Steve Bacon, President

Guests: No guests

17 members present and our interpreter Laura Leffler.

Steve brought the meeting to order.

Old Business:

Next show is April 17, 2021 at the Boone County Fair Grounds, Arrangements are being finalized. 2022 has not yet been discussed. March 2022 may be iffy as that is the month they traditionally trade hogs.

The Boone County Fairgrounds has monitors on the wall which can be used. We may have to rent the second hall due to COVID restrictions, one hall for the vendors and the other for the contest.

White Elephant Gift Exchange. The Chapter will vote on the location in November.
Dues are prorated till 2021

New Business:

A couple of our members have come down with COVID-19, Andy Leffler and Wunji Lau. They're both working through the malaise and are recovering. Please give them and their families your best. If you're in contact with them, touch base and see if they need anything.

Al Grimm and Mark Durick brought in several boxes of kits for sale.

The Christmas pizza was held courtesy of Andy Leffler and served with care by RonYoung. If you did not make it you missed out.

Ken Kindler is accepting Dues for 2021 membership.

The White Elephant Gift Exchange will beat the MCL Cafeteria in Castleton January 15, 2021 starting at 6 PM sharp due to constrained hours. As usual, bring a wrapped gift (modeling related) about $10.00 - $30.00 value if you wish to take part in the White Elephant Gift Exchange.

Next show is April 17, 2021 at the Boone County Fairgrounds, Arrangements are being finalized. 2022 has not yet been discussed. March 2022 may be iffy as that is the month they traditionally trade hogs.

We need to distribute fliers to local venues.

Discussion regarding the raffle. They tend to do better when the raffles are seeded with quality kits. The question is to host the raffle at the contest or cancel it. After discussion it was decided that we seed the raffle with $600.00.

The Boone County Fairgrounds has monitors on the wall which can be used.

A grant has been applied for through Boone County which may offset some of the initial costs.

There will be a Native American dance gathering, Pow Wow, scheduled for the same weekend. There should be ample parking anyway .

Discussion about coins for awards this year for gold, silver and bronze. IPMS logo on front and Roscoe Turner on the back. Vote was held to buy a two year supply of trophy coins for awards. More info to come.

Matters need coordinated with the fairground management such as set up and tear down and food trucks.

Info is in the process of being announced through various media sources.

Contest committee will meet on Jan 17 2021.

There remains the possible chance of being shut down due to COVID restrictions.

Show and Tell:

None

Wrap up:

The meeting concluded after discussions and voting on actions and future plans. Encourage attendance at the January Meeting so that as many members as possible can provide input to future events.
